

TESO EDUCATION FUND (TEF) UGANDA TO GIVE A BOOST TO THE TESO EDUCATION SECTOR IN TESO AS IT GETS REGISTERED AS AN NGO

The poor performance of Teso schools in recently released Primary Leaving Examination (PLE), Uganda Certificate of Education Examination (UCE) and Uganda Advanced Certificate of Education examination (UACE) results left many Iteso scratching their heads wondering whether Teso will regain its past glory as a centre of education excellence producing the most renowned professionals and academicians like Prof John Ilukor (RIP), Prof Odaet (RIP), Prof Ikoja, Prof Francis Omaswa, Prof Opuda. The list is countless.

Yes, Iteso are not sleeping, a new Charity called Teso Education Fund (TEF) Uganda has been born out of their quest to respond to the education needs and challenges facing the people of Teso.

Teso Education Fund (TEF) Uganda whose mission is “to improve the wellbeing of underprivileged children, families, and communities in Teso through sustainable advancement of education and skills training, undertaking other development interventions and ensuring social inclusion in our work” got a boost in September 2021 when it was officially registered as a Charity No. 5565 INDR15542648NB and granted an operation permit for the period of 5 years.

Ms. Frances Atima who is the Chairperson, Board of Trustees of TEF Uganda could not hide her excitement when notified about the registration. She said, “It is now time to work for the betterment of education of our people in Teso”. Mr. Peter Okubal who is the founding Country Director of TEF Uganda added his voice of excitement to that of the Chairperson. He reiterated his commitment to ensure that “All Iteso access education either formal or informal”. He said, “there are opportunities out there for our children, whether primary school dropouts, teenage mothers, the poor and underprivileged or secondary dropouts to get back to class or some form of competence-based education”. TEF Uganda will find you and get you educated or skilled he concluded.
