TEF Young People Entrepreneurship Development (YPED) Project, Uganda

Application Form

Teso Education Fund (TEF) in partnership with the African Youth Enterprise Programme (AYEP) at the University of Bristol, UK is implementing a 2-year project called TEF Young People Entrepreneurship Development (YPED) project in Uganda.

The goal of the project is to contribute to improving the economic well-being of young people in the Teso sub-region of Uganda. To achieve its goal, the project has 4 objectives on training and mentoring young people in entrepreneurship and providing start-up capital.

The project is open to young people from Teso aspiring to be entrepreneurs who are 18-35 years old and residing in Teso for the 2-year project life. Female candidates and candidates with disability are encouraged to apply. Applicants should be able to attend training in Soroti.

TEF invites applications from eligible candidates from Teso in Uganda to apply for 50 places to be trained in entrepreneurship. The applicants can be existing or new entrepreneurs.

Applications will open on 5th February 2024 and close on 29th February 2024 at mid night Uganda Time. Successful applicants will be notified in by 8th March 2024.

To contact TEF about this project, please email Dr Patrick Igulot, Executive Director on email Patrick.Igulot@tefuk.org, telephone +4420 4529 2693 or the YPED Coordinator in TEF Uganda, Ms Harriet Amoding on email info@tefug.org or telephone +256 700 719744.
